Regarding: Request for Refund to Deposit Account No. 502417
U.S. Patent Application Serial Number 10/749,719

Dear Ms. Sims:

This letter is a request for the refunding of $475.00 to Deposit Account No. 502417.

Attached hereto is a Monthly Statement of Deposit Account dated 1-31-06 for Deposit Account No. 502417. It indicates that $450.00 was withdrawn from the account on 1-17-06 for a three month time extension fee (fee code 2253) for patent application serial number 10/749,719 and that $25.00 was withdrawn on 1-31-06 as a service charge (fee code 9202).

It is believed that this withdrawal is related to the Office action mailed 8/24/2005. This action provided a three month response date as shown on the attached Office action summary from that Office action. Thus, a response could be filed without a time extension until 11/24/2005. Applicants filed a response on 12/26/2005, which by rule because required only a one-month time extension and a fee of $60.00, which was paid by check.

Applicants submit that the withdrawals from the deposit account set forth above were made in error as the proper time extension was requested and paid for at the time the response was filed. Consequently, please immediately refund the $450.00 erroneously withdrawn from account number 502417. In addition, please refund the $25.00 withdrawn as a service charge since no service charge would be due but for the PTO's erroneous withdrawal. Finally, please refund any future withdrawals of funds for being below the minimum where such withdrawals would not have occurred but for the erroneous withdrawal set forth above.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Craig Gregersen, Reg. No. 31,832
